David's News

Hello again at last! Welcome to the new style newsletter.

We will be producing one newsletter each month to keep you in touch with news of banners around the world; more great stories of the wonderful move of God in relation to worship and warfare with banners; new developments in banners; and let you know what we are doing and where.

I love reading and sharing how God is moving in your life as you worship and war with banners, so keep those e-mails coming in.

Anointed Living Room

"Have just received these banners and I LOVE THEM ALL!

They are so unbelievably beautiful – the pictures don't do them justice. I opened 'Anointed Oil' first and I'm considering using two of these as top valence window coverings in my living room! Everyone sitting on our sofa will be set under His anointing oil ..." (Cindy, CA U.S.A.)

Banners are like Swords

The banners are very powerful end-time weapons: they cut the darkness, which is like a blanket over some areas. Even though truth may be spoken, ears can't hear because such heavy darkness covers the area.

As the banners are wielded, like swords, the darkness is separated. With each banner (sword), more light comes into the situation and ears can hear the truth. (Maria IL U.S.A.)

Kids Cocooned in 'The Blood' in Fiji

Miracle Education is a prayer network praying into education. Using banners as we pray and praise was a natural progression in our understanding of the power of the shed blood of Jesus.

My prayer partner and I had the privilege of praying for children with special needs in orphanages and schools in Fiji. We were able to wrap the children in the banner of the blood of Jesus and pray for them. We literally saw the peace of God fall upon tormented children once they were wrapped in the banner. One boy even had to be coaxed to let go of the banner, as it had become such an anointed cocoon for him! (Di, Qld, Aust)

Banners in the Bible:

The Israelites are to set up their tents by divisions, each man in his own camp under his own standard.
